

Chamber Starts Cleanup Campaign

These are pictures of areas in Canyon that could stand some cleaning during the Chamber of Commerce Cleanup Campaign this week. Scattered through this issue of the Canyon News are other pictures.

MAYOR CHARLES DONNELL
City of Canyon

It's time to clean up Canyon.
A full week of activities will be launched Friday by the Cleanup Campaign Committee of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. The week will be ended with Inspection Day on July 4.

The schedule includes Friday, Kickoff Day; Saturday, Front Yard and Street Day; Sunday, Church Cooperation Day; Monday, Back Yard and Alley Day; Tuesday, Vacant Lot Day; Wednesday, Business Area Cleanup; Thursday, Pick Up and Paint Up Day; and Friday, Inspection Day.

In cooperation with the chamber, Mayor Charles Donnell has proclaimed this week to be Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up Week in Canyon.

The chamber committee is composed of Jerry LaGrone, chairman, Mike Morris, J. B. Roberts, Mrs. C. B. McClure, Mrs. Lee Foster, M. L. Sherrod, Wilbur Truitt and J. D. Byrd.

The committee has made a survey of vacant lots in Canyon, and is attempting to contact the owners in order to arrange for the cleanup of those lots.

The cooperation of Randall County Commissioner Bailie McCormick has been obtained, and Precinct 1 trucks will help city trash trucks on Pickup Day. Any trash put in alleys will be picked up, according to LaGrone.

Sketch of New Stadium

This is Architect Robert Hucker's sketch of the proposed stadium for West Texas State College. It will seat 20,000 persons and cost $700,000.

WT Stadium Fund Headquarters Set

An area campaign to raise $300,000 is the first item on the agenda for West Texas State College's 20,000-seat football stadium, with work scheduled to start about July 1.

The goal is the amount needed to assure completion of the modern and spacious plant, which will be built at an estimated cost of $700,000 and ready for the 1959 season. The college board of regents has $400,000 earmarked for the structure.

The stadium, which will have the distinction of seating more people than any other plant in the Panhandle, will have two 10,000-seat stands facing east and west. When the need arises, it can be expanded to seat 50,000 fans.

All 20,000 seats that will be completed in the first program will be below the ground level. The press box and concession stands will be located on the ground level and team dressing rooms will be at the south end.

The new stadium will be located in a natural bowl setting on Canyon Hill, just east of the expressway.

The Buffaloes, who this year reached major status in football, will play a home schedule of five games in 1959, the first season in the new stadium. It will be dedicated Sept. 26 with the University of Arizona. Then come visits from Mississippi Southern, Oct. 17; Hardin-Simmons University, Oct. 24; Drake University, Oct. 31; and Virginia Tech, Nov. 7.

"The new stadium will give West Texas an opportunity to bring big-time college football to the Golden Spread," said Frank Kimbrough, WT athletic director. "We are attempting to bring the best possible college ball to fans of this area and the stadium is one of the key factors."

Headquarters for the West Texas State Stadium Fund Drive has been opened at 418 Polk in Amarillo.

Water Use Is Million-Plus

Water use in Canyon jumped into the million-gallon-a-day bracket soon after the first of the month and has stayed there more than half of the time.

The highest daily use was 1,874,000 gallons on June 11. It was 1,764,400 on June 9 and 1,797,600 on June 10 for a three-day total of 5,436,000 gallons.

During the past week, the use has been 1,370,100 Wednesday, 1,610,000 Thursday, 1,357,600 Friday, 567,400 Saturday, 539,800 Sunday and 740,000 Monday.

Since the first of the month the daily use has been more than one million gallons on 14 days.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Fitts

Funeral services for Mrs. Tom Fitts, a resident of Canyon, were held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in Peacock, Texas. Mrs. Fitts died suddenly at 5 a.m. Friday in a Lamesa hospital. The Fitts residence is at 2105 Sixth Avenue.

Business Sewer Rates $5-10-15

The final decision of the city commission in establishing new commercial sewer rates shows a different price from that quoted in an article in last week's Canyon News.

The new prices will be $5 for small businesses, $10 for medium and $15 for large rather than the $10, $15 and $25 rates quoted last week.

The classification of the various businesses is included in the ordinance.

Get Exemptions Before Friday

Persons who have become 21 since Feb. 1 have until closing time Thursday to secure an exemption certificate to vote in the July 26 primary, according to Bill Money, Randall County Tax Assessor-Collector.

There is no charge for the exemption certificate, and it is good for voting in all elections between July 26 and next Feb. 1. Those who have just turned 21 cannot vote without obtaining the certificate.

Anyone who has become qualified to vote by reason of length of residence can obtain an exemption for voting in the primary under the same time limit.

Residence requirements, for both those who moved in and those who have turned 21, are 12 months in the state and six months in the county.

The exempt person will be required to give his name, age, race, county of residence, occupation, length of time in Texas and in the county, the number of the voting precinct and his street or rural address. He must also give the reason for claiming an exemption.

4-H Delegate

Charles Conatser, left, was a guest of Congressman Walter Rogers at a luncheon in the capitol building while Conatser was attending the National 4-H Club Conference in Washington. He was one of four delegates from Texas. Conatser has also been awarded a renewal of a scholarship at Texas A&M, where he will be a sophomore next year.

Duties, Qualifications of Judge's Office Explained for Voter's Help

(This is the first in a series of articles outlining the duties and responsibilities of county offices which are up for election this year, and are contested.—Editor)

The office of county judge has multi-faceted duties that require a man of unusual abilities in order to give the most efficient service. In addition, in Randall County, the county judge is also ex-officio county school superintendent.

The statutory qualifications for judge are not hard to meet. They state that candidates must never have taken part in a duel in any fashion, must be 21 and have lived 12 months in the state and six months in the county. Candidates must not advocate violent overthrow of the government—about the same requirements for all candidates.

In addition to the regular requirements, the candidates for county judge must be men "who shall be well-informed in the law of this state." Vernon's Texas Statutes, a compilation of state laws, says that the phrase is usually interpreted to mean any man who can get himself elected.

The duties of the office are quite varied. Briefly, they fall into about seven categories. Those are:

1. Judge of the county criminal and civil courts.
2. Chairman of the county commissioners court.
3. Judge of the probate court.
4. Judge of the juvenile court.
5. Chief officer for enforcement of the new mental health code.
6. Welfare and charity officer.
7. Handling duties which are not specifically designated for other

C of C Government Group Suggests Different Setup for City of Canyon

A recommendation that Canyon's city government be changed from mayor-commission-general law to home rule-city manager was passed Monday night by a chamber of commerce committee.

The committee studied a resume of the various types of government available to Canyon, and picked the recommended form. A report of the committee meeting has been sent to the Canyon City Commission for study and possible action.

The type of government recommended by the committee would mean changing from regulation by the state's general law to regulation by a charter written and adopted by the people of Canyon.

The committee also suggested that the form of governing body be a mayor and four commissioners, operating through a city manager. The committee felt that the commissioners should have alternating terms so that the commission will always have experienced members.

Types of government studied by the committee include the weak mayor-council form, the strong mayor-council form, the commission form and the council manager form. Canyon now uses the three-member commission form and operates under the general laws of the state.

The committee was composed of Bob Wear, chairman, Crannell Tolliver, A. W. Lair, O. W. Parker, Paul Lindsey and Bill Cherry.

Wear said that most people desire good government and most realize there is a close relationship between the form of government and efficient administration. "No form of government will of itself produce a civic millennium," he said. "Intelligent citizen interest, participation and supervision are just as important to the success of one plan as another."

Literature studied by the committee showed that a home-rule city has more freedom to govern itself according to its own needs than does a general law city. A home-rule city also has the right to select its own form of governing body.

The general law restricts cities to the three-member commission form, and one of the two types of mayor-council bodies. The general law also allows the addition of a city manager to either of the three types.

The chamber of commerce committee was one of those selected in the work program set up by the chamber board of directors. The change in government was suggested during the citizens forums last spring.

Storefront Remodeling

New storefronts were built for three Canyon merchants this week as a chamber of commerce committee began working on that project. The old fronts were torn out Monday, and the new ones were virtually finished this morning. The new fronts are at Anderson Appliance, Cheatham's Clothiers and the Canyon Drug.

What an Easy Violation

We didn't know this until last week when we read about it happening in Ralls, but it is against the law in Texas to help a man find work on a farm, or any kind of common labor for that matter.

In Ralls, the chamber of commerce offered free employment and placement service for local farmers. The chamber manager was informed last week by the state department of labor that he would be acting illegally if he told anyone where he could get a job on a farm.

The Crosby County Farm Bureau broke the law, too. The manager inserted an ad in the newspapers telling of a free service for getting farmers and laborers together. He was told that the mere insertion of the ad was considered "exploitation" of labor.

The law being broken is one enacted by the 51st Legislature in 1949, and was designed to curb "exploitation" of people who want to work.

Ernest Joiner, fireball editor of the Ralls Banner, calls the law "stupid and asinine," and says the real reason for the law is to "put every farmer and employer of common labor at the tender mercies of organized labor, or the Texas Department of Labor, which is a thinly disguised agent of labor unions in Texas."

Joiner says that the Ralls chamber of commerce and the Crosby Farm Bureau can do what they like about the law, but that he will "break the law any day of the week, whenever, and wherever we find a man seeking a job and know another man seeking help."

Joiner advises, "If you want to be a real law-abiding citizen and stay out of trouble, the next time Farmer Jones asks you where you can find some needed hoehands, you turn and run like a scared rabbit."

How long has it been since Canyon has had a good cleaning? From the looks of some places, there has never been a cleanup, but we know that that couldn't be true.

Regardless of how long it has been, now is the time to get busy and clean your place. The campaign beginning this weekend is late for this year, we know, but there's that old saying about "better late than never," or maybe the one about "there's no time like the present."

The chamber of commerce plans to make a general cleanup-fixup-paintup campaign an annual affair, and plans it for earlier in the spring so that a planting time can be included, too.

A cleaner town should give everyone a better feeling. We can all be prouder of how we look, and our values should be better. Do your part this weekend, and Canyon can be changed from the crummiest town in the area to the cleanest.

Remodel Throughout?

Anderson's Appliance, Cheatham's Clothiers and the Canyon Drug started remodeling their storefronts Monday morning — giving a facelift to the square that ought to be carried on all around. Their remodeling will be somewhat like plucking an eyebrow — helping the looks of one eye, but doing nothing for the rest of the face. T. A. Black is due to start soon.

One thing we could all do without, and it would help the rest of the face, is the eyesore bandstand erected practically in the middle of 16th Street between Fourth and Fifth Avenues.

The bandstand serves no earthly use we can see, except to shelter birds and collect windblown trash. The chamber of commerce sometimes uses it when the merchants sponsor a drawing — but the chamber could use the back of a pickup just as well.

We'd like to see the bandstand removed.

Tickling Story

Mrs. Clay Cooper tells a story that should please John Buchanan and Pete Cowart no end.

Her son, Charles, was up in the far north end of North Dakota and struck up a conversation with a man. He asked Charles where he lived, and Charles told him Canyon. Charles explained that Canyon is in the Panhandle.

Although he had been to Texas, the man couldn't recall Canyon, and asked where it is near. Charles told him it is near Amarillo, and that struck a spark. "I think I've been in Amarillo, but there's one place in Texas that I remember," said the man. "I remember Sad Monkey Junction."

For the benefit of our readers who know Canyon, and recall Amarillo, but don't remember Sad Monkey, it's the station on the Palo Duro, Burlington and West Texas Railroad in Palo Duro Canyon.

Pure Luck

We are certainly lucky that we don't have any more two-car, intersection collisions that we do in Canyon. The way things are, we should be having two or three a day.

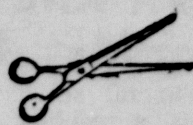

Just think of the number of intersections where the driver of one car cannot see an approaching car until he is out in the middle of the intersection. There are four around the square.

There are innumerable more all over town where people have planted shrubbery that has grown until it blocks the line of sight. Other intersections are blocked by cars parked too close to the intersection.

What's to be done? We don't know — maybe we should increase our insurance coverage and keep trusting to luck.

What Our Neighbors Say ...

Scissor Snippings

Ernest Joiner in the Ralls Banner: We danged near jumped the '53 Ford into a stump yesterday at a strange sight, right on Main Street. Without any seeming provocation, a teenage girl was stomping along, dressed in a dress!

Whatever the occasion, it was something of a shock. We've been conditioned to seeing these chicks arrayed in shorts, loin-cloths, pedal pushers, jeans and G-strings to the extent that we seriously doubt if we'd recognize half of them with their clothes on.

Paul Crume in the Dallas Morning News: H. Roe Bartle, the mayor of Kansas City, came down to Dallas to be the Optimist International main speaker and immediately got his foot tangled in our problems.

He was telling a group of friends at the Cipango Club Tuesday that, since he was down here, he wanted to go over to Fort Worth and visit his young granddaughter. He and Mayor Thornton (mayor of Dallas) have been friends for years, so Mayor Thornton lent his car and chauffeur.

When he got to Fort Worth, his granddaughter immediately wanted to know about the car and he explained with some pride who it belonged to.

"Grandfather, you better go in the bathroom and wash all over," exclaimed the youngster.

"Why?"

"We don't ever mention Dallas or Love Field over here."

Jimmie Gilentine in the Hereford Brand: Generally I go right along with the home demonstration ladies, but, this time, they went too far. Out at Westway last week they had a club meeting centering around the art of conversation. All of the time, Lefty Thomas is the one who should be sponsoring these meetings for the men. He might entitle it, "How to get a word in edgewise." I asked Clarence Morrison what he thought about it, but he refused to comment on the grounds that he is in politics.

Harold Hudson in the Ochiltree County Herald: We have reached one conclusion (after a swimming trip with his two boys). That is that 95 per cent of all adult males and at least 75 per cent of adult females look better with their clothes on. There are a few men, especially young men, who sport a tan and ripple their muscles without looking silly. These are mainly pool lizards, young men who apparently have nothing else to do but loll around and get a sun tan, occasionally dipping into the pool. For the most part, however, the adult male is apt to be a fellow with a white skin, protruding stomach, thin shanks and wearing an outdated swimming suit and a worried expression.

Young females look fine in bathing suits—and they all know it. But when a woman gets a little age on her, and the middle age spread starts spreading, there is nothing like a bathing suit to emphasize weak points. This is probably why women avoid swimming pools as soon as they become convinced of the necessity for foundation garments.

Bascom Nelson in the Castro County News: On the macabre side of the tornado issue there's this one: A tornado blew a man and his wife out through their house roof. A neighbor watching from his cellar door shouted: "There go Tom and Sally—the first time they've been out together in 20 years!"

To a friend of mine who is an executive in the field of finance, I made a remark about the Spanish prisoner swindle and to my amazement he said:

"I never heard of it."
The scheme is one of the oldest. In its original form, the "prisoner" was in Spain; in more recent years, he is in Mexico but the "con game" is still known to the authorities as the Spanish prisoner. Briefly, here's the way it operates:

An American who is well-to-do receives a letter. The letter declares its writer is a rich man who has been imprisoned by enemies — (sometimes, it is political foes; sometimes, it is grasping relatives who seek to deprive him of his property). Before he was seized (the letter goes on) he had a premonition and was planning to flee, so he had placed a large amount of cash and jewels in a box. Only he knows where the box is hidden.

Dear Editor:

I think that the hours at the swimming pool are mainly (and I think every parent will agree) for the safety of our children. Now tell me, would you like to see some small child trying his darnedest to learn to swim and some blubberhead (and nine times out of ten they don't look) spread eagles right in the middle of little Billy and maybe injure him for life, much less giving him such a scare it may take the parents 30 years into talking him into getting back in the water again.

With his last money, he has paid a friendly guard who will smuggle this letter out and has agreed to let him escape on the payment of $5,000 (or perhaps $10,000).

"You may wonder at hearing from a stranger," the letter continues. "But I have heard you spoken of as a man of honor."

Then follows the plan: The American is to come to Mexico, of course bringing the cash with him. He is to proceed to such-and-such a city where he will go to the central park. He is to arrive at exactly ten minutes before 11 o'clock in the morning. Precisely four minutes later — (Ah, romance now enters the story:) a young lady will arrive at the statue beside which the American waits. She is the prisoner's daughter.

"I hope you will pardon a father's pride when I say that she is beautiful with the beauty of Old Castile," he writes.

Then he gives the code words which will be exchanged so that each may be sure of the other's identity. The daughter and the American will proceed with the plans for buying the man's release, after which they will obtain the box and, for his aid, the American will be given half the contents. His share will easily be worth ten times the amount he provides.

The letter closes with the admonition that the utmost secrecy is necessary lest the prisoner's oppressors learn of the plan and move him to another stronghold. "So say nothing to anyone but come alone — and at once. Time is of the essence." The letter is written in bold handwriting and the English is excellent although the phrases are in courtly Spanish such as one would expect from a well-educated Mexican.

If the American follows the plan, he is met by a lovely senorita who conducts him to two friends. The procedure varies but he is asked to show the money; which they provide. Soon, they make an appointment to meet him at a little cafe for breakfast next day and from there they will proceed to the town where the prisoner is held.

Next morning, the American is at the little cafe but his new friends are not there. He waits half the morning; still they do not appear. He returns to his hotel room, locks the door and opens the package. It contains pieces of newspaper. An already prepared package had been substituted for the one with the money.

That, in brief, is the Spanish prisoner story.

If you receive such a letter, it is suggested that you keep it as a souvenir but that you also keep your $5,000 even though this will mean that you do not get to meet the beautiful senorita.

By VERN SANFORD

It's catfishing time in Texas! The real meat fishermen now are showing up to have their pictures made with full-grown catfish. I've seen several of them taken from trot lines and throw lines, the past week, on Lake Travis.

Catfish can be taken any time of the year. However, July and August seem to be the months when most of the big ones are hooked.

Perhaps the principal reason is that other fish are less likely to be caught during the two hot summer months and fishermen just naturally turn to the catfish.

Some bass and crappie are caught, but generally they seem to have their tummies full and seek out some good cool spot to spend the day. I don't mean that many are not caught. However, the number decreases as the temperature rises. Whether it is the fault of the fish or the fisherman I wouldn't say. But I do know that there are fishermen who catch them any time of the year, hot or cold.

Generally speaking catfishing isn't as much work as bass fishing. Catfish can be caught in most any manner. Frequently one will hit on a plug. They'll take minnows, cut bait, dough bait, even Ivory soap.

They'll come to a baited hole and will be enticed by almost any kind of scent bait. A sack of fermented shorts or corn chops, or a gunny sack filled with uncooked bones dropped into the water alongside an old tree usually is a good magnet to attract catfish.

Many pole fishermen come up with some dandies by baiting a hole and then sitting quietly in their boats and waiting for the catfish to move in.

However, the old time favorite way of taking catfish is by trot line. Usually such a line is extended between two points, perhaps a couple hundred feet apart, down a creek or across one, or across a channel where catfish are likely to be foraging.

The line can be anchored to a stake, tree, stump, or weighted down with glass bottles for buoys.

Most often one end of the line is tied to something solid. The other end has a heavy weight, with a guy line from the weight to a tightly closed bottle which floats on top of the water to designate the end of the line or the location. They also help keep the line off the bottom.

Some catfishermen like for their lines to be on the bottom; others like to have their lines barely under the water. In any event when they are in the open they should be deep enough that they won't be cut apart by outboards moving over the area. It's a good way for you to lose a line, and also for an outboard to get its prop badly tangled.

Hooks can vary in size. Most fishermen usually use a 5/0 to 7/0 Eagle Claw. A great deal will depend on the area in which you are fishing. If the fish are small then a smaller hook is best. Some fishermen use 3/0 but these are very light for large fish.

The hooks are attached to the trot line via a stageon with a short line of about 50 pound test. This stageon or drop should be from a foot to 18 inches long. It can be tied directly to the trot line, or there are fasteners available which make the operation a little easier.

Experienced trot line fishermen have a good reel for holding their lines. They can play these out from the boat very easily without getting tangled. Sometimes if the wind is a little high or the water swift, a line has to be put into the water hurriedly before the boat loses position.

Although many trot lines are set out and run by one man, it really is a two-man job. A friend of ours boated a husky yellow cat (34 inches long) the other morning... single handed. And he almost lost it. Although the hook was caught well, the fight to land him was so hard and so long that when the cat was pulled over the side of the boat it fell off the hook. Fortunately for my friend the fish stayed in the boat.

When running a trot line it is best to have everything possible cleaned out of your boat. Everything except your life preservers and a tub in the center of the boat. The catfish can then be dumped into this tub. Some fishermen are now using plastic garbage containers for this purpose.

Best advice we can possibly give is that you be careful. There are two distinct hazards in catfishing. One is that in playing out your trot line and baiting it in a hurry you can easily get a hook caught in your hand. There is considerable tension on a trot line. If you are not careful when you release it after baiting or removing a fish, it will jerk a hook into your thumb.

Brother, you've had it when this happens. If the hook goes in over the barb, then cut the hook off the line immediately. If you can work the barb through the flesh with pliers, cutting off the shank, that's fine. The better plan, however, is to get to the family doc as quickly as you can. He can remove the hook and give you an anti-tet shot which is a safeguard. He'll also flatten out your wallet a little, which will teach you to be more careful next time.

The other danger is from the catfish itself. This gentleman has a sharp spine on its pectoral fin and another on its dorsal fin.

Co-Op Grain Storage

A new, 280,000 bushel storage building was opened for use by Consumers Fuel and Elevator at 11 p. m. June 15, and the following day, this much wheat had been poured inside. The trucks dump their load in the elevator, where the grain is lifted, carried on a conveyor to the new building and dumped through openings in the ceiling.

These fins can do you more harm than a knife blade. A flopping catfish can stick you with this spine and cause very serious injury.

They are extremely dangerous. And if you are finned badly, we repeat — see your doctor as soon as you can. You may save an arm or a leg.

I watched a smart fisherman recently. When he caught a catfish he took hold of it with a pair of tongs. He also had a pair of cutting snips and before he put that catfish down he had cut off its spines. It took him an extra minute, but it was also a safeguard.

Catfish can be handled by a good pair of pliers or fish gripper in the mouth. A pair of tongs, similar to those used to handle hot bottles containing the baby formula, will do.

Texas has several varieties of good catfish. One of the best is the channel cat that attains a maximum weight of about 25 pounds. This fish is produced by the Game and Fish Commission hatcheries and placed in lakes, streams and stock tanks. It is a nocturnal feeder, which makes night time the best to fish for them.

Then there is the Blue Cat. Some of these have been checked in at 150 pounds. Generally a 25 pounder, however, is a good one.

Among others are the flatheads; the yellow bullhead, also known as the Pollywog; the black bullhead; the brown bullhead and the widemouth catfish. There are also several other varieties not too frequently found.

If you want accurate information on all these fish, so you can readily identify them, you should get a copy of the bulletin prepared by Will Brown, assistant director of inland fisheries of the Game & Fish Commission in Austin. A two-penny postal card addressed to the Game & Fish Commission, Walton Bldg., Austin, Texas, will bring it to you.

Hereford, Tex., Man Reports— 2 Bale Per Acre Cotton Using Phillips 66 Ammonia

J. F. Martin, who farms 1,720 acres near Hereford, Tex., says: "I put down Phillips 66 ammonia pre-plant on my irrigated cotton and made 2 bales to the acre. I also use Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia on my wheat and maize land with good results."

Other Southwestern farmers have discovered that 82% nitrogen from top quality Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia helps them get more profit per acre through higher yields. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin... yields of sorghum grain and ensilage are increased... more marketable vegetables are harvested... and profits on wheat are increased through better forage and higher yields of grain.

Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia contains 82% nitrogen and gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of commercial fertilizer available.

Camp Cooks Can Use Foil Dishes

For a camping trip, a picnic, or a meal in the backyard, food cooked in aluminum foil is delicious and easy to do. You can bake and serve in the foil and save on dish washing.

Vegetables, meats and fruits can be "pressure cooked" in their own juices this way, with only a bit of seasoning, shortening, butter or bacon added for flavor and moisture.

For best results, Extension Service foods and nutrition specialists offer these suggestions.

Wrap carefully — piece of foil should be large enough to allow for drug store wrap. Place food in center. Add butter or fat and seasonings. Fold edges until tight on food. Double the layer around the food by repeating the process with another piece of foil.

Place package directly on a bed of hot coals. Never use a flaming fire (except when using a reflector oven).

Cooking time will vary with type of firewood, wind strength and other factors. Recipes can give only approximate time. Turn food package at approximately half its cooking time.

Serve contents directly from the wrap, doing away with a dish or plate.

Details on foil cookery are given in the bulletin on "Food for Camp." Get a copy from the Randall County Agent's office.

Fite Becomes Property Man

The new WT employee will make a file of all property owned by West Texas State, furnishing copies to the State Comptroller and to the WT business office, in compliance with state law.

Fite will inventory annually all departmental property, tagging all new equipment and deleting property lost or traded for new equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fite and their three children live at 2200 Sixth Avenue in Canyon.

Joseph A. Hill Chapel Is Scene Of Ceremony for Gibbs-Hilgers

The Joseph A. Hill Chapel on the campus of West Texas State College was the June 6 scene of the marriage of Betty Kay Gibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Gibbs of Amarillo, and Harold Wayne Hilgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Hilgers of Amarillo.

The chapel was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, the blossoms arranged sunburst fashion and feathered with greenery. Centering the altar area was an arched candelabra bearing white tapers, which were lighted by Billy Gibbs, brother of the bride, and Larry Hilgers, brother of the groom.

A nuptial prelude of wedding selections was played by George Gray, organist, who also accompanied the soloist, Dennis Plunk of Amarillo, who sang "I Love You Truly" by Bond, "Always" by Berlin, and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

Attendants to the bride were Judy Hilgers, sister of the bridegroom, who was maid of honor. Sheila Dixon, Dumas, and Nelda Coffee, Canyon, were bridesmaids. Their ballerina-length dresses were of pink silk organza with overskirts of white organza embroidered with white daisies. Pink cummerbunds were draped around the waists to bows in the back, and bandeaus of pink net daisies complemented the dresses. Miss Hilgers' dress was pink, and the bridesmaids were aqua. Bouquets of daisies were matching in color.

Best man was Phillip Halbert of Houston, while John Porter of Abilene and Douglas Roberts of Tulsa, Okla., were groomsmen. Ushers were Jerry and Jimmy Jacobson and Billy Warnick.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of embroidered silk organza styled with a torso waist fitted onto a full three-tiered skirt. The bodice featured short sleeves and a Sabrina neckline.

The bride's fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of French tulle trimmed with tiny seed pearls. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of white stephanotis surrounding a white orchid, all atop a white prayer book.

The reception was held in Cousins Hall on the WT campus. Following the reception, the couple left on a wedding trip to New Mexico.

Milk Is Tops As Thirst Killer

Do you reach for something cold to drink on these hot summer afternoons? A frosty glass of milk is your best choice, both flavor-wise and nutrition-wise, according to Extension Service foods and nutrition specialists.

A glass of milk is refreshing any time during the day. Try drinking it when you stop to rest in the midst of your housework. Serve to children and adults as between-meal snack. It serves as a quick energy pick-up, and is loaded with food nutrients.

An 8-ounce glass of whole milk has 170 calories, about one-third of the needed daily caloric requirements, but it is high in food values. You get a third of your daily calcium requirement, more than one-fourth of the riboflavin, and more than one-sixth of the protein requirement. Milk is your best source of calcium, the mineral that keeps bones hard. Most people like plain milk at mealtime, but for between meals try adding a scoop of ice cream or a little sweetened, crushed, fresh fruit. Whether you're enjoying plain milk, or a dressed up version, milk tastes better these hot summer days when it's served in a frosty, cold glass.

"Good Milk for Good Meals," an extension bulletin available from the Randall County Agent's office, gives up-to-date information about the use of dry milk solids, buttermilk, skim milk and condensed milk, as well as the more familiar pasteurized milk.

Married in First Methodist Church

MRS. DON DUNCAN

Prichard-Duncan Exchange Vows

With Bob Wear, minister of the Church of Christ, reading the double ring ceremony, Diane Prichard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Prichard of Canyon, became the bride of Don Duncan, son of Mrs. Edna Duncan of Canyon, in the First Methodist Church at 8 p. m. June 20. For pre-nuptial organ music, Mrs. Lee Foster, Canyon, played "Cantilene Nuptiale" by Dubois, "Andante from Third Organ Sonata" by Mendelssohn, "Evening Prayer" by Lawrence, "Reverie" by Wilson, "Adagio from First Sonata" by Mendelssohn, "Chorale: As the Dew from Heaven" by Daynes, "Salut d'Amour" by Elgar and "May Angels Bright Be Near You" by Bach. As the mothers were seated, "Intermezzo" by Mascogni was played.

Bill Knighton sang "Oh, Promise Me" by de Koven. "Arioso" by Handel was used as the wedding party entered, and the "Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin" by Wagner highlighted the entrance of the bride. "Claire de Lune" by Debussy was background music for the ceremony. As the closing, Knighton sang "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap. "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn was used for the recessional.

The candlelight ceremony was performed before a satin draped choir rail centered by the church altar. An arrangement of white asters was placed at the base of the gold cross on the altar, and cathedral style candelabra holding white tapers flanked the arrangement. On each side of the altar were floor standards filled with large white peonies and white stock, and backing each were cathedral candelabra in arch style outlining the arrangement. The outer edges of the background were marked with cathedral candelabra and stands of woodwardia fern. The kneeling bench and traditional aisle cloth were used.

Anne Prichard of El Paso, a niece of the bride, and Barbara Bacon, Canyon, attended the bride as bridesmaids. Maid of honor was Wanda Rogers, Canyon. The attendants wore identical waltz length dresses of mint green taffeta with a French lace bodice accented by a low neckline and tiny lace sleeves. The Empire cummerbund of taffeta terminated in a large back bow above the bouffant skirt. They wore matching headdresses of mint green taffeta with circular maline veils. Each carried a bouquet which was fashioned in a modern crescent arrangement of various foliage. Rosettes fashioned from variegated ivy leaves centered the arrangement of salal foliage.

Best man was Tom Monroe of accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a powder blue lace dress over taffeta accented by a taffeta bow on the side. She wore white accessories and a white rose corsage.

A reception in Fellowship Hall of the church followed the ceremony. The bride's table, laid with an organdy tablecloth with linen inserts, was centered with a crystal punch service and the wedding cake. Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. A. H. Prichard Jr. of El Paso, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. M. O. Wallis of Amarillo, aunt of the groom; and Mrs. James Black of Hereford, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Eugene Boston sat at the guest book, and Mrs. Houston Bright provided musical selections.

Others in the house party were Mrs. Guy Hamblen and Mrs. Don Singleton, both of Amarillo; Mrs. Foster Parker, Lubbock; Mrs. Don Wells, Lynn Atkinson, Sally Foster, Charlotte Crain, Mrs. Joe Black and Mrs. Madison Daugherty, all of Canyon.

For the wedding trip to points of interest near Galveston, Houston and the Gulf, the bride wore a black and white checked two piece dress with white and patent accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses. After July 1, the couple will be at home at 908 Sixth Avenue.

TELEPHONE TALK

by W. L. Leavy, Manager

TELEPHONE GAIN IN JUNE

Some 30 new telephones were connected the first couple of weeks in June. I looked through the records of these new connections and found that about half were school teachers. They came from as far away as Salt Lake City and Tucson. A big percent of the rest were students. Summer school is getting to be a pretty big operation in Canyon now days.

FOR PARENTS ONLY

Now that summer is here and the children are out of school, I imagine the family's telephone service is getting an extra-good workout.

I guess teenagers, and even the smaller fry, need the telephone more often during vacation months. They use it to line-up sand lot ball games, swimming parties, movie dates, and a good many other things, as we all know.

It would be hard to find a better time than now to order an extension telephone. Put it in a room where it will be handiest for the youngsters. They'll enjoy the privacy and so will you. Best of all, you'll save yourself no telling how many dashes to answer incoming calls that always seem to be just for them.

To order an extension, just call the telephone business office, OL5-2157. The cost is only $.75 a month for a residence extension, plus tax and installation.

MEMO TO BUSINESS MEN

I heard a businessman remark recently that he's going over his operations with a fine-tooth comb to trim unnecessary expenses. And one item he planned to cut was Long Distance.

I wonder if he wasn't making a mistake. I can understand the desire to cut costs. But, rather than cut Long Distance, he should use his telephone even MORE for out-of-town calling.

Many businessmen have proved it in for themselves, and here's how: Instead of you or your salesman taking a day to visit several prospective customers in other cities, call them Long Distance. It saves travel on the highway, and turns travel time into selling time. And a telephone call is almost as personal as a visit and just as appreciated.

Try it yourself and watch the results. I think in the end you'll agree with our belief that Long Distance doesn't cost, it pays.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

officials, but must be performed for the county.

In addition to the county duties, the Randall County judge acts as secretary to the county school board and as superintendent of the Umbarger Common School District. Neither of those jobs is time consuming.

The county judge is also an examining magistrate and arraigning magistrate. That means that prisoners can be taken before the county judge for arraignment, and he can act as a magistrate when the accused person demands an examining trial.

The county judge in this county is the contact man for the administration of the county. He is the person to whom matters for consideration of the commissioners court are addressed. In turn, when the commissioners court wishes to contact other organizations or persons, they authorize the county judge to make those contacts.

He is delegated to obtain information for the court, and is responsible for submitting matters for consideration by the commissioners court except to break ties.

The county judge is as near to being the administrative officer as is possible under the method of operation that Randall County has. In this county, the judge has a secretary who has the additional duty of answering the two direct telephone lines to Amarillo and buzzing the other offices being called.

As judge of the county criminal court, the county judge has original and concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that carry the possible penalty of a jail sentence and/or fine. He has concurrent jurisdiction with the justices of the peace.

The types of cases handled in the county criminal court include such as these: First offense driving while intoxicated, theft under $50, negligent homicide, swindling by worthless check from $5 to $50, aggravated assault, destruction of property valued at under $50, contributing to delinquency of minors and liquor law violations.

In general, the maximum sentences that the county judge can assess are $2000 fine and/or two years in county jail. In negligent homicide cases, the maximum penalty is $3000 fine or three years in jail.

The county judge has appellate jurisdiction over the JP courts and corporation courts.

In the county civil court, the county judge has jurisdiction over all damage suits up to $1000, jurisdiction over stray livestock cases and it is the exclusive trial court in condemnation cases regardless of the value.

By special statute, the Randall County civil court has concurrent jurisdiction with JP courts in civil matters, and it is the appellate court from JP courts in civil suits.

As judge of the juvenile court, the county judge hears all juvenile cases. He has the authority to put juveniles on probation and turn them back to their parents, to declare juveniles delinquent and make them wards of the court. He can commit juvenile delinquents to the reform school for indefinite terms.

As judge of the probate court, the county judge has exclusive jurisdiction in the estates of those who have died, minors, drunkards and incompetents. He conducts hearings for commitments for mental disorders and alcoholism.

As welfare and charity officer, the judge is responsible for investigating requests for charity and conducts the investigation through the sheriff's office, personally and through the state welfare officer in the county. He has been given the authority by the commissioners court to grant emergency requests for small amounts, but the court must pass on all large requests and approve the emergency requests.

In Randall County, the county judge is responsible for dictating and having typed the minutes of the commissioners court meetings.

The minutes are kept in the county clerk's records. The statutes require that the county clerk attend on the commissioners court to obtain the minutes, but the Randall County commissioners have found that it is a more practical matter to have the judge keep the minutes.

The office of county judge pays $4050 per year, and in addition, he receives $2000 per year as ex-officio county school superintendent for a total salary of $6050.

There are two candidates for the office this year: The incumbent, Roy Joe Stevens, and a former county judge, Burney Slack.

LUMBER CO. BURROW

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The burning of wheat stubble is one of the most costly things that can happen to a wheat field, says Joe Batson, Soil Conservation Service work unit conservationist. Crop residue (wheat stubble) worked into the top 4 to 6 inches of the soil is one of the best ways of improving the condition of the soil, preventing crusting and washing from hard showers and helping to hold down wind erosion damage next spring.

Good soil condition, besides resulting in good tilth and increased water holding capacities, acts as a storehouse of food for the growth of both plants and micro-organisms. Plant nutrients lost as a result of burning would be an additional cost if they were bought and replaced.

With a mulch of wheat stubble in the field the impact of the falling rain drop will be broken and result in less destruction of soil structure and less crusting. The stubble also tends to reduce runoff and evaporation of the soil moisture.

Next spring when the winds come a field with some stubble cover on it will reduce the speed of the wind close to the surface of the ground and this will in turn help keep the field from blowing.

For a better soil condition and reduction of soil and water erosion the supervisors of the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District and technicians of the SCS believe the farmer will benefit most in the long run if some stubble is worked into the top soil and some left standing.

Announce Marriage Rosacker-Thompson

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rosacker of Santa Fe, N. M., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Joann, to W. M. Thompson Jr. of Canyon May 17.

Mrs. Thompson was graduated from Santa Fe High School in 1957 and attended West Texas State College last year, majoring in business education. Mr. Thompson received his bachelor of science degree from WT last spring. The couple are making their home in Amarillo, where the bridegroom is employed at Hunter's Hospital Supply.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barker and Joyce went to Kenton, Okla., over the weekend. The Barker's daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dutton from La Junta, Colo., met them there and picked up Jo Lynn Dutton, who had been staying with her grandparents. Joyce Barker will spend the summer with the Duttons.

Toby Mahle of Houston visited his grandmother, Mrs. S. M. Mahle, and other relatives here last week.

Former WT Faculty Member Discovers Canyonites Have Not Changed Too Much

People of Canyon have not changed much in 23 years. At least, C. Wesley Batchelder, who was associate professor of speech at West Texas State College from 1926-35, found it that way.

Batchelder, who was a visitor in Canyon this week, discovered many Canyonites were residents here when he taught at WT. For instance, Charlie Donnell, now mayor of Canyon, was one of Batchelder's "Panhandle Players," which presented plays in various Panhandle towns. Co-sponsor of the Players was the late Mary Morgan Brown, former head of the speech department at WT, for whom the new girls dormitory was named.

On leave of absence from Bradford Junior College in Bradford, Mass., where he has been director of the speech department since 1937, Batchelder stayed in Canyon only a short while, visiting friends particularly fellow faculty members at WT, and former students. The graying professor, who coached debate teams for both boys and girls, defeated two of his classmates' teams in debate contests. Batchelder's first debate victory came when his team was coached by Emerson College classmate Earl Bryan. Later, the team from the College of Industrial Arts, coached by Grover Shaw, also an alumnus of Emerson College, fell before WT's team.

The debate coach also served as a director of debate, extemporaneous speaking and one-act play contests for the Texas Interscholastic League.

A graduate of WT, Batchelder was organizer and director of the West Texas Children's Theater, the second children's theater in Texas. He also directed and acted in Amarillo Little Theater productions.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Hattie E. Brasuel during the past three weeks were her four children and their families. Visiting were Capt. and Mrs. James D. Watts and children, who were enroute from Germany to Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Carnes and children of Calexico, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. V. J. McGehee and children of Amarillo; and Mr. and Mrs. Troy A. Brasuel and children of Lubbock.

Dresses, Shirts Use Dollars Share

Men's sport shirts, women's street dresses and girls' school or sports dresses take a big share of the clothing dollars in most family budgets. Extension Service clothing specialists say these three items deserve special attention when you shop, because the many new fabrics, finishes, colors and styles make the job of selection pretty confusing.

Price is not necessarily a guide to quality. Specialists say it pays to look for a label that gives information on fiber content, care needed, color fastness, and shrinkage. A sales person whom you know well can give you much helpful information that will assure greater satisfaction and longer wear.

Buying guides and pointers on judging fabrics and finishes, selecting suitable styles, sizes and colors, and information on labels have been prepared by extension clothing specialists.

Three new leaflets — "Buying Sport Shirts," "Buying a Street Dress" and "Buying a Girl's School Dress," are available. Call or write the Randall County Home Demonstration Agent's office for copies.

He who is prejudiced is usually down on something he's not up on.

FOR THE
TEXAS SUPREME COURT

A statewide poll of the legal profession, conducted by the State Bar of Texas, shows the vote to be:

JOE GREENHILL 5,844 votes
His Opponent 1,727

This is the overwhelming verdict of members of the candidates' own profession after carefully weighing their qualifications and experience, studying their record and considering their judicial temperament and personal integrity.

The lawyers of Texas have thus joined farmers, ranchers, merchants, laborers, businessmen and other professional people in supporting the candidacy of Judge JOE GREENHILL because all of them want to keep a fair, honest and sincere judge on the Texas Supreme Court.

New Fourth Avenue

One weekend ago, construction workers took away the barricades and Fourth Avenue was opened to unrestricted traffic. On the following Monday, highway department trucks painted stripes on the streets, and this Monday Southwestern Public Service began erecting street lights. The street lights will be mercury vapor and will run the length of the widened street and around the square.

A couple of young husbands were sounding off the other night about what poor cooks they had married. They were brothers, and we were all enjoying an excellent meal in their mother's home.

"Mother's a gourmet," the young lawyer said. "She just loves to cook. But Anne! At 11 o'clock she says to herself, 'I must prepare lunch for my husband! She goes to the deep freeze, takes out a couple of hamburger patties, slaps them in a skillet, adds salt and maybe pepper. She dumps a frozen vegetable into boiling water, puts a plastic doilie on the table, sets down a plate with the meat and vegetable in it, and that's a meal."

They both had a good deal to say, all in fun, of course. But we couldn't help noting a few things: (1) they talked as if a pound put on either of their slender wives was a major catastrophe; (2) they assumed that their mother, who really is a superior cook, didn't use frozen or canned goods, mainly because she has the gift of making food seem hand-done; and (3) they ignored the tremendous difference in the amount of time and money she can afford to spend on one meal, which their wives, both with young children and a limited budget, can hardly work out.

In fairness, they did admit that "Mother" didn't cook like this every day (fortunate, too, because anyone who ate such rich delicacies three times daily would soon weigh closer to 300 than to 100 pounds).

A woman who lives to eat — and doesn't mind gaining — is likely to put delicious meals on a table. A woman who loves to eat and is trying to watch her weight isn't about to make rich dressings, for fear she will yield to temptation.

So a wise young husband will either let up on his girl friend about her figure, or else he'll settle for foods that aren't dressed up with creamed sauces and rich desserts.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Morton and daughter, Debbie, of Indianapolis, Ind., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anthony. Morton has served two years in the Army. The family will make their home in Lubbock.

Nuptial Vows Read For Howard, Golson

Nuptial vows were solemnized for Eva Mae Howard of Amarillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Howard of Canyon, and Billy Gene Golson of Canyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Golson of Shamrock, in a double ring ceremony at 6 p. m. June 14 in the home of the bride's parents.

The vows were read by the Rev. Joe Lomax before baskets of pink gladioli and stock. Two banks of candles were on each side of the altar.

The bride's only attendant, Almeta Howard, sister of the bride, wore a light pink dress and white accessories. Her dress was accented by a corsage of white carnations. Charles Shields, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white crystalline dress styled along princess lines and topped by a three-quarter length lace duster. She wore a small white hat with elbow length veil in back. Carrying a bouquet of small pink rose buds, the bride used white accessories to complete the outfit.

A reception, held in the parents' home, was attended by 35 guests. For the wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the bride traveled in a navy blue and white chemise with white accessories.

The couple are at home at 607

Alabama, Amarillo. Mrs. Golson was graduated from Canyon High School and the San Jacinto School of Beauty. She is employed at the Minnie Mullins Beauty Salon in Amarillo. Mr. Golson, a graduate of Shamrock High School, is a junior at West Texas State College and a service station attendant in Canyon.

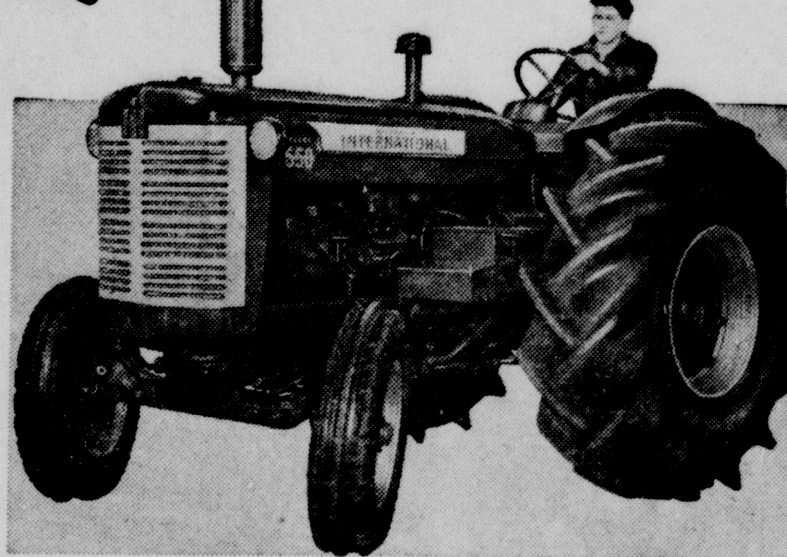

Mrs. Bob Priddy and children of Farmington, N. M., are visiting Mrs. Priddy's mother, Mrs. Grace McDougal. Mrs. McDougal visited in Farmington last week.
